

AN ASSEMBLED VIEW OF A SAFETY VALVE

Safety Valve is a device that automatically actuates when the pressure exceeds a preset pressure, to open the valve disc and discharge the fluid; and when the pressure drops to the preset value, to close the valve disc again.