FDP on "Mobile Computing"

Dronacharya College of Engineering, Gurgaon in association with NITTTR, Chandigarh conducted a four days FDP on "Mobile Computing" through ICT from 25th -29th January, 2016. 27 Faculty Members from various departments of Dronacharya College of Engineering, Gurgaon participated in the workshop. In total 15 colleges across the country were connected. The main objective of this workshop was to introduce the basic concepts and principles in mobile computing. This includes the major techniques involved, and networks & system issues for the design and implementation of mobile computing systems and applications.

Prof. (Dr.) BMK Prasad, Principal with Prof. Vishal Bharti ,HOD CSE & Local Coordinator during the opening address

Participants at the FDP