

A mere complaint against anyone having been involved in ragging of any kind will invite cancellation of admission and rustication from the University forthwith forever.

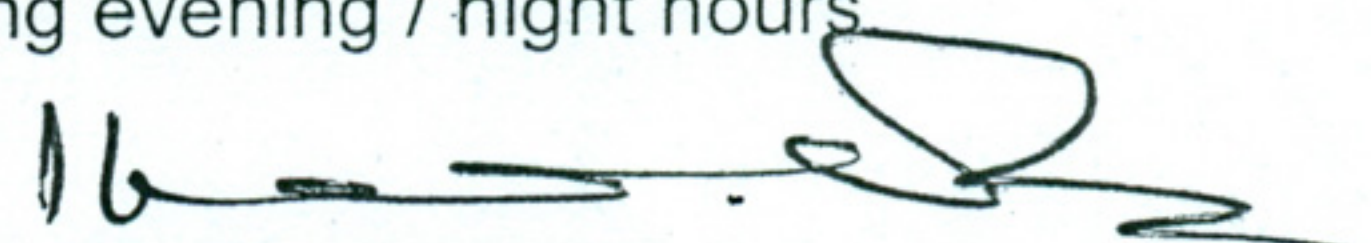

VICE-CHANCELLOR

Endst.No.PA:VC:MDU:

Dated: July 1st, 2009

In compliance of the above orders, it is further required as under:

1. All Heads of Departments on the campus and Principals / Directors of affiliated/ aided/non-aided colleges / institutions will display the above orders at a place, notice board, widely visible to the students. They will also have it read out in each class atleast once in a week at about 11.00 A.M. A report as to the desired having been done be sent to the Secretary to Vice-Chancellor, Vice-Chancellor's Office, M.D.University, Rohtak by fax No.01262-274133, 274640 every week.
2. The above orders be given effect to by the Principals / Directors of affiliated/ aided / non-aided colleges / institutions at their own level as soon as a report of ragging in their institution is received. This be taken as authorization given to them by the Vice-Chancellor in pursuance the powers vested in him by the University Statutes.
3. With regard to complaints of ragging of any kind sent or reported by any Head of the Department on the campus, the Proctor is authorized to promptly give effect to the above orders at his own level, without waiting any formal approval / orders of the Vice-Chancellor.
4. Special care shall be taken to ensure avoidance of any act of ragging taking place in the institutional hostels, particularly during late evening and/or the night time. Hostel Wardens be given suitable instructions by the Provost(s) asking them, individually and collectively, to be more watchful against acts of ragging in the hostel(s) especially during evening / night hours.

VICE-CHANCELLOR

(P.T.O.)