

QIP Short Term Course on Make in India: Innovative Product Design

Ms. Parul Bansal (Assistant Professor, Electronics & Computer Engineering Department) represented Dronacharya College of Engineering, Gurgaon in the 5-day workshop on “Make in India: Innovative Product Design” organized at IIT Delhi from 14-18 December 2015. This course was aimed at providing the necessary concepts, knowledge and skills for a successful innovative product design for achieving the objectives of fulfilling the needs of a society and higher goals of establishing a prosperous nation. The session was primarily taken by Prof. Harish Hirani, Faculty in Dept. of Mechanical Engineering, IIT Delhi and a renowned person in the field of product design. The workshop was attended by over 50 academicians from all over the country.

