

MOCK PLACEMENT PREPARATORY SESSION

Mock placement preparatory session for the Final Year students was organised by Electronics & Communication Engineering Department on 22 August 2015. The main objective of the session was to make students aware of the corporate face and how to tackle it, resume building since it reflects the overall impression of a student's academic achievements and discussion on topics important for students during interview.

The technical interview session being conducted by Mr. Sagar Nainkwal

The technical interview session being conducted by Mr. Vineet Goyal and Mr. Yash